Rep. Sherry Gay-Dagnogo, from the 8th District, offered the following invocation:

“God of our weary years, God of our silent tears.
Thou Who hast brought us thus far on the way;
Thou Who hast by Thy might, led us into the light,
Keep us forever in the path, we pray.
Lest our feet stray from the places, of our God, where we met Thee.
Lest our hearts, drunk with the wine of the world, we forget Thee.
Shadowed beneath Thy hand, may we forever stand,
True to our God, true to our native land.

Dear God as we gather together as stewards of Your people serving the state of Michigan we first say thank You, thank You for the duty that You have entrusted and assigned to us all. In Your sight we are collected, beyond our respective party affiliation we ask that we are able to demonstrate the love on this great day- that we celebrate love with the love of Christ in our hearts and in our actions. Whoever lives in love, lives in God and God in them. Ephesians 4:2 ‘be completely humble and be gentle, be patient, bearing with one another in love.’ Above all other- above all as Peter instructs, love each other deeply because love covers a multitude of sin. ‘My command’ in John says, ‘this is love- love each other as I have loved you.’ As we celebrate Ash Wednesday, we ask that You truly turn our hearts to true repentance to serve Your people. As we stand united, we ask that You bless all of our law enforcement officers those whose lives that have been taken senselessly not only in the city of Detroit, but throughout our state. Give us a consciousness and a willingness to work together, to lift up their lives and their safety as they serve to protect and keep our community safe. Bless their families during these great tragedies. We forever pray. Lord let us find a way to advance policies that unite us more, and divide us less. Let us serve as a beacon of light in this 99th legislature before we turn 100, to show to the nation, that Michigan can, and Michigan will work together as one Michigan; beyond our party affiliation, our race, or culture will stand united to advance one Michigan. God give us a heart, a heart like Your heart, let this mind be in us what is also in Christ Jesus. Let us be accepting of others, inviting of others, and willing to advance policies that impact others. God bless us with true love, love that passes all understanding on this great day of love. We thank You, we bless You, we honor You, and we certainly praise You; in Jesus name we pray, Amen.”

Pursuant to Joint Rule 20, the full title of the act shall be inserted to read as follows:

“An act to provide for the establishment of emergency 9-1-1 districts; to provide for the installation, operation, modification, and maintenance of universal emergency 9-1-1 service systems; to provide for the imposition and collection of certain charges; to provide the powers and duties of certain state agencies, local units of government, public officers, service suppliers, and others; to create an emergency 9-1-1 service committee; to provide remedies and penalties; and to repeal acts and parts of acts.”

The House agreed to the full title.

Rep. Lauwers moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Theis, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

While I agree that this is an area that needs to be funded, I believe this improved system that is necessary state-wide should be funded via the State appropriations process, and not through fee increases.”
